State Services for the Blind – the Minnesota Vocational Rehabilitation Program for people who are blind, DeafBlind and low vision

What's possible for you?

Blind, DeafBlind and low vision students can have careers in many types of jobs.

If you are interested in gaining independence and working after high school, apply to State Services for the Blind (SSB) for services.

You can apply as early as age 14. The sooner the better! Whether you want a job or career, SSB is an important resource.

SSB counselors can help you answer questions like these:

- What are my career interests and abilities?
- What jobs fit my interests and abilities
- How do I find out more about the work I like most?
- What steps do I take to find a job?
- What if I need more training?
- How do I pay for school or a training program?
